

THE TORONTO ART CRAWL CHRISTMAS MARKET IS BACK FOR ITS 3RD YEAR- BIGGER AND MORE EXCITING THAN EVER.

Toronto, November 8, 2016 * FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE*

Held at Toronto's historic Great Hall and featuring over 95 local designers, artisans and makers, this year's event promises to be the destination for all your one-of-a-kind holiday shopping.

Whether you're searching for that unique vintage find, or a customized piece of art, shopping for your baby niece or your 95 year old granny, the Toronto Art Crawl Christmas Market has you covered.

And it's not just a day of shopping! The Toronto Art Crawl Christmas Market is a FULL day of fun, shopping and more! Featuring a complimentary photo booth by Sensus Design and Build, a toy and food drive, complimentary coffee courtesy of Starbucks Canada and live music, the Christmas Market's two floors of shopping, entertainment and fun are sure to put you in the holiday spirit.

The first 25 entrants at the door will be receiving our customized luxury swag bags values at over $125, featuring items from some of our vendors and sponsors! Come early for your chance at scoring one of these bags.

Grab a bite, get your groove on and do a little holiday shopping all in one place. The Toronto Art Crawl Holiday Market is ONE DAY ONLY. Sunday, November 20th at The Great Hall.

Tickets are $5 in advance and $8 at the door. Kids under 10 are free.

About Toronto Art Crawl

Toronto Art Crawl was established in 2013 and gathers incredible artists and artisans each year to exhibit in three of Toronto's hottest neighbourhoods: Liberty Village, Queen Street West and The Entertainment District. Its 2015 and 2016 outdoor season we're presented by Varekai, Toruk and Luzia by Cirque Du Soleil and was voted among the Top 6 outdoor art fairs to attend by BlogTO. Bringing together a diverse collection of local artists and craftspeople accompanied by DJs and Food Trucks, Toronto Art Crawl has had a huge impact on the urban scene by hosting can't-miss events in trendy, yet culturally underserved, Toronto neighbourhoods.

About Toronto Art Crawl Founder, Nadia Lloyd

Toronto Art Crawl founder Nadia Lloyd got her start as an artist in 2010, leaving her career in fitness behind to follow her artistic passion. In less than 5 years, she went from an unknown who had never painted before to one of Toronto's most sought after artists. Her successful custom artwork as well as prints, fashion and home decor items can all be found on her newly launched website, www.nadialloyd.com, and on her event website at www.TorontoArtCrawl.com.
